“My time in a SABIS® Network school has been a very rewarding and enjoyable experience. Coaching the boys’ football team stands out in particular and it was great to win two trophies. There are many opportunities here for teachers to improve their career and broaden their cultural horizons.”

“Working for the SABIS® Network has given me great experience. It has inspired me to pursue a career as a teacher, as I have enrolled in the PGCE from University of Sunderland, and improved my confidence. Living in Dubai is amazing—so many different people. It really is a place unlike any other.”

“My name is Cliodhna O'Donoghue, I am a qualified business and Spanish teacher. The SABIS® Network helped me structure my teaching. It is very interesting to live in an Arab country, I am trying to learn the language.”

“My Name is Holly Lenny. I arrived in Dubai in 2015 as a Kindergarten teacher. It was a great experience because it taught me many life skills such as being better organized, people skills, and experiencing different cultures. In 2016, I was promoted to assistant to the director, a role that I really enjoy because it allows me to incorporate skills and knowledge that relate to my degree.”

"This year I will be progressing into a management position as an Academic Quality Controller. A position which a teacher in Ireland would unlikely be entrusted with after only two short years of teaching. The opportunities for advancement are exceptional within the SABIS® Network."

"I feel privileged to be part of the SABIS® Network. It has given me a great start to my teaching career and I feel well prepared for future teaching roles after my time here. The opportunities it provides for the students are also very visible and it definitely makes me feel as if I am part of a positive learning environment."

"The benefits of working with the SABIS® Network are numerous, there is great opportunity to progress with in the company. The U.A.E. is very central base for travel opportunities. A tax free wage that can be spent as you please, free utility bills, flights, insurance and accommodation, a teaching experience and opportunity like this is hard to obtain in Ireland."

"Being a part of the SABIS® Network provides lots of great experiences. Teaching young children from different cultures has given me great confidence in my career. It also provides so much advantages that I would never have had at home, especially travel opportunities."
